

THE FIVE BEST EXHIBITIONS

► REBECCA HORN
(late Liverpool)

The German artist known for her aggressive kinetic sculptures and wearable "body extension" pieces: bound bodies, elongated heads... (0151-702 7400) to 16 Nov

► INDEPENDENCE
(South London Gallery)

Group show about freedom, with work by more than 100 artists: Emin, Weiner and Wentworth, among many. (020-7703 6120) to 3 Aug

► MAUD SULTER (National Portrait Gallery, Edinburgh, above right)

"Jeanne Duval: a melodrama", fictive photo pieces inspired by the life and legend of the poet Baudelaire's muse. (0131-624 6200) to 31 Aug

► THOMAS JONES
(National Museum & Gallery, Cardiff)

Bicentennial show for the 18th-century Welsh painter, famous for almost abstract images of buildings in Naples. (029-2039 7951) to 10 Aug

► CINDY SHERMAN
(Serpentine, London)

The queen of the dressing-up box celebrates 25 years of identity-transformation, with recent clown images. (020-7402 6075) to 25 Aug

... AND ONE TO AVOID

► GENESIS P-ORRIDGE (A22 Gallery, London)

The nutty performance-artist-as-artwork's show encompasses historical imagery and new shots of his cosmetic surgery.

THE BEST OF THE REST

► CLASSICAL ALL-NIGHTER
(Temple Church, London)

World premiere of John Tavener's all-night vigil, The Veil of the Temple. Stephen Layton conducts. (020-7638 8891) tomorrow & 4 Jul 10pm-5.30am

► FESTIVAL COMICA
(ICA, London)

Highlights of this graphic-novel festival include cult illustrator Charles Burns, and Chris Ware, the author of Jimmy Corrigan. (020-7930 3647) tomorrow to 6 Jul

► JAZZ JOOLS HOLLAND
(Althorp, Northants)

The TV host and whisky man continues his boogie-blues tour, taking in the woods and stately homes of Britain. (0870-890 6005) tomorrow

► POP SUPER FURRY ANIMALS
(The MS1 Club, Cardiff)

Gruff Rhys's fuzzily lovable Welsh psychedelicists get into gear for a Glastonbury slot on Saturday, previewing their Phantom Power album. (029-2030 1000) tomorrow

► BOOKS OUNDRLE FESTIVAL
(Various venues, Dundee, Northants)

The inaugural festival features DJ Taylor, Hilary Mantel, Michael Holroyd and Anthony Thwaite. (01832 273523) Sat to 6 Jul

FULL CINEMA, THEATRE AND EVENTS LISTINGS,
PLUS THE BEST OF EUROPE, APPEAR IN FRIDAY'S REVIEW